1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the principles of the theory of the structure of the human brain. It is shown that the brain is a complex organ, the structure of which is determined by the function it performs. The brain is divided into two main parts, the cerebrum and the cerebellum, each of which has its own special functions. The cerebrum is the larger part of the brain and is responsible for the higher functions of the mind, such as thought, feeling, and volition. The cerebellum is the smaller part of the brain and is responsible for the lower functions of the mind, such as the control of the muscles and the maintenance of equilibrium.

2. The second part of the paper is devoted to a detailed description of the structure of the human brain. It is shown that the brain is composed of a large number of small parts, each of which has its own special function. The brain is divided into a number of regions, each of which is responsible for a different function. The regions of the brain are the cerebrum, the cerebellum, the brainstem, and the spinal cord. Each of these regions is further divided into a number of smaller parts, each of which has its own special function.

3. The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the functions of the human brain. It is shown that the brain is a very complex organ, the functions of which are determined by its structure. The brain is responsible for a large number of functions, including the control of the muscles, the maintenance of equilibrium, the regulation of the internal organs, and the control of the mind. The functions of the brain are determined by the structure of the brain, and the structure of the brain is determined by the function it performs.

Broadway. Stretching from Gary's United States Steel Works on the north side to the suburban area of Crown Point on its south end, Broadway is Northwest Indiana's main roadway. Andrean High School's home is 5959 Broadway, Merrillville, Indiana.

Broadway. It has been said that a visitor to New York City needs to remember only one street. This street is Broadway, starting at the tip of Manhattan Island and leading into upper New York State.

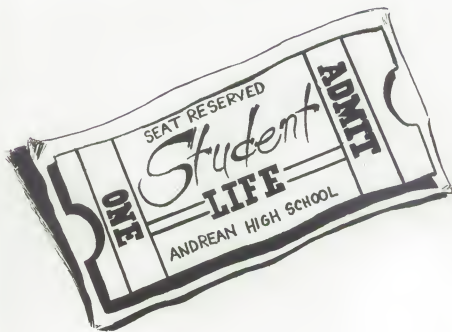

Broadway is a place of bright lights, a magical place where dreams come true. While we are at Andrean, we are in the spotlight as we prepare for the future. The spotlight shines on us when we win a decisive victory, when the spring play opens, when we perform as clowns, and when we finally graduate with tassels on our hats. Faculty and administration guide and direct our preparation as Andrean acts as the road to stardom on another Broadway.

STUDENT LIFE

HOMECOMING

Excitement and anticipation filled the air at Homecoming 1987. The evening began with the annual parade of floats down Broadway. Each class created a float for the parade, as did several school organizations. The freshman float was awarded first prize in the float contest. During halftime, Michelle Jao was crowned Homecoming Queen by 1986 queen Dawn LoVerde. Other members of the court included Lynn Compton, Jen Attar, Erika Harris, and Michelle Kopp. The football team's 9-7 victory over Chesterton topped off the evening. Senior Bill Rakoczy commented, "This year's Homecoming was the best. I'll always remember it years after I graduate."

HOMECOMING DANCE

"Rock Around the Clock" was an appropriate theme for the 1987 Homecoming Dance held on Saturday, September 20, 1987. The gym was decorated in 1950's style and each couple was given an Oldie 45 as a souvenir of the evening. The music was provided by Rolin' Sound. Homecoming Chairperson Angela Burroughs commented on the evening, "It was a great success. All the work and preparation we put into the dance was worth it."

RETREATS

Retreats give students a chance to grow spiritually as well as mentally. Through these retreats, students learn a lot about themselves and their peers. Underclassman retreats at the Salvatorian Shrine were led by upperclassmen. Senior retreats were held at Camp Lawrence in Valparaiso. Jim Carter commented on his retreat experience: "My retreat weekend was a unique and fulfilling experience that I will remember always."

SOCK HOPS

Sock hops give students the opportunity to kick up their heels to the latest music. Students enjoy dancing to a variety of tunes from rap to new wave. The sock hops also provided a much needed diversion from school and studies. Various school organizations, including PomPons, Cheerleaders, Latin Club, and Spanish Club, sponsored sock hops this year.

ABOVE: Halloween sock hops bring out the beast in all of us. RIGHT: Chad Close and Dan Persic take their dancing seriously.

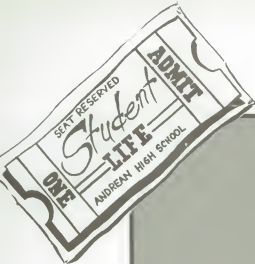

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE

Despite nasty weather and slippery roads, a large crowd turned up at the Junior-Senior Dance. The dance was held on January 23 at the Turkey Creek Country Club in Merrillville. Student DJ's T. J. Schulien, John Gonzales, and Jim Carter provided the music for the evening. Senior John Kroepfl commented on the dance, "I had a marvelous time. The food was delicious, and the music was terrific. I'll remember this night for a long time."

BOVE: Chris Benac and Debbie Brzoska dance the night away. UPPER RIGHT: Kathy Wongse-Sanit, Stacey Granger, and Greta Doumanian look forward to an evening of fun and good music. LOWER RIGHT: Cherry Stanzione and Sean Rigg take a break from dancing.

DADDY DATE NIGHT

On October 25, fathers and daughters got a chance to spend an enjoyable evening together at Daddy Date Night. The dance was sponsored by Mrs. Hevel and deejayed by Abbey Road. The tickets cost $20 and all proceeds went to the home economics department.

MOMMY DATE NIGHT

On February 6, Andrean's gentlemen escorted their favorite dates, their moms, to Mommy Date Night. Moms and sons enjoyed each other's company while they ate a delicious dinner. Following the dinner, moms and sons danced the night away to the music of Abbey Road. Moms who had a four-year perfect attendance record received a special diploma. Thanks to Mrs. Hevel and her home economics class, the evening was a great success.

LEFT: Mr. Listro and his band Abbey Road play up a storm at Mommy Date Night. ABOVE: Moms and sons wait in line for pictures at Mommy Date Night.

TURNABOUT

Turnabout defies tradition by finally giving girls a chance to ask guys to a dance instead of waiting by the phone. They hope that someone will ask them. Turnabout 1988 was held on February 13, in the Boys' gymnasium. Over 180 couples attended the dance. This year's theme was "And Then He Kissed Me!" Decorations consisted of silver Hershey's Kisses with red, black, and white accents.

ARSENIC & OLD LACE

The Andrean Drama Club performed Joseph Kesserling's Arsenic and Old Lace on November 12-15 in the boys' gymnasium. The play tells the story of the zany Brewster family of Brooklyn. Miss Gina Shropshire, Miss Tina O'Drobinak, and Mr. Nicholas Dorochoff directed the play with the help of student director Kim Zimmer. The cast included students from each class. The months of rehearsing and hard work that the cast and crew put into the play resulted in a first-rate production.

ONCE UPON A MATTRESS

The Drama Club presented Once Upon A Mattress, a fairy tale-like musical for the spring play. The play is a parody of the familiar children's story, The Princess and the Pea. Like the fable, the play's main characters are Princess Winnifred, a young prince, and the queen who insists on putting all of the would-be princesses to the test. These roles were played by Angela Volan, Michael Martinez, and Kim Zimmer. In the comedic adaptation of the story, the princess swims from her swamp kingdom to the castle in search of her shy and boyish prince. The play ends happily as Princess Winnifred passes her test and wins the prince.

PROM

"I've Had the Time of My Life" was the theme of Prom '88. Appropriately, all who attended enjoyed a memorable evening. The dance was held at the Hellenic Cultural Center in Merrillville on May 6. The hall was decorated in emerald green and peach. This year besides hors d'oeuvres, dinner was served.

After dinner couples enjoyed a promenade outside the building as excited parents took pictures. The beautiful weather added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Prom Queen honors went to Lynn Compton, and Blair O'Connor was Prom King. Shad Shultz and Angie Caban were crowned Prince and Princess.

ARMAGEDDON

Armageddon activities began on Monday, May 9, with the start of Spirit Week. Students shed their uniforms for more desirable clothes. To promote spirit and unity, each class was given a region of the cafeteria to decorate.

The Games officially began with the lighting of the torch at the opening assembly. The class officers participated in relay races and eating contests.

The results of Armageddon were announced at the sock hop following the Games. The seniors emerged victorious, edging the juniors by half a point. The sophomore class came in third, followed by the freshmen.

ACADEMICS

ACADEMICS

Histories make men wise; poets, witty; the mathematics, subtle; natural philosophy, deep; moral, grave; logic and rhetoric, able to contend.

— FRANCIS BACON

While sports and other extra-curricular activities contribute to a well-rounded individual, academics make a person complete. In the classes we take at Andrean, we develop ourselves mentally, emotionally, spiritually, and sometimes physically. We prepare ourselves to handle any situation that may come our way. Our ultimate goal is complete self-reliance. Through academics we may come closer to this goal. Through academics we ready ourselves for our moment in the spotlight.

Spotlight on the Stars

Boys' Tennis Continues Success

Although six new tennis courts were added to Andread's athletic facilities, they were not ready in time to aid the team for the 1987 season, and Niners were forced, as in past years, to travel to other courts for practice. Nonetheless, Coach Klora's varsity squad proved once again that they could win without home courts. They compiled a record of 9 wins and 5 losses. Top singles competitors were Tom Rosta, Brett Teske, and Fernando Rivera. Completing the season at the top doubles positions were teams of Scott Burton and Bob Vegter and Pat Fleming and Rob Hevezi.

Niners shut out Crown Point, Gary Wirt, Gary Roosevelt, and Merrillville. In the Lake Station Invitational Niners finished a strong second. In the state tournament, Andread faced Griffith (12-3) and Lake Central (16-0) in sectional play. Upsetting Griffith 4-1, they advanced to sectional championship against Lake Central, losing 3-2.

Coach Klora praised the fine season and individual efforts and performances. Individual award winners were Tom Rosta, Most Valuable, and Brett Teske, Most Improved.

Lady Niner Reachers Regionals

The Andean girls' golf team had a season characterized by strong individual performances. The team coached by Mr. Pishkur failed to qualify for regionals as a whole. Junior Sarah Gagan, however, qualified as an individual. Sarah won in the sectional, but was not able to advance beyond regionals. The Most Valuable Golfer award went to Sarah Gagan.

Boys' Cross Country at its Best

Coach Mark Horvath guided the boys' cross country team to a record of 15 wins and 2 losses, posting the best record in the history of Andrean cross country. Season highlights included victories over Merrillville, for the second year in a row, and Crown Point, whom the Niners defeated for the first time in nine years. In addition to the dual meets, Niners finished a strong second place in the Hammond Gavitt, Lowell, North Newton and Boone Grove invitationals.

The team was also characterized by excellent individual efforts, led by captains Pete Sanchez and Blair O'Connor and number one runner Brian Kopack. Midway through the season at Wheeler, Pete Sanchez and Brian Kopack broke the course record of 16:01 with times of 15:58 and 16:00 respectively. In doing so, Pete and Brian became the second and third fastest runners in Andrean history. In the state tournament, Niners placed second in their sectional. Coach Horvath was disappointed with the team's performance in regionals but more than happy with the fine season record the team had compiled. He said, "Andrean became one of the premier teams in the toughest part of the state. We are no longer just another competitor but are now considered a contender."

*Most Valuable Runners were Brian Kopack and Pete Sanchez. Winner of the first annual O'Connor Award was Blair O'Connor. Most Improved Runner Award went to Franco Cammarata.

Season of Competition

Under the guidance of coach Dan Rogovich, the girls' cross country team finished its season with three wins and ten losses. Despite the return of only three lettermen, the team remained competitive throughout the season. Co-Most Valuable Runners were sophomore Michelle Penn and senior Tricia Van Slyke. Junior Debbie Van Slyke commented, "Our inexperience and small team's size probably hindered our chances of winning more meets, but we learned a lot and had fun."

A Season of Highlights

The 7-3 Niners completed a powerful season highlighted by impressive wins. The varsity team defeated three 5A schools in successive victories, including a 6-0 overtime win over arch-rival Merrillville, marking the first AHS win over the Pirates since 1963. The team demonstrated drive in their come-from-behind victory against Griffith. After taking the ball 72 yards, Niners secured a big sectional win with a touchdown with only 13 seconds remaining in the game.

Special awards went to Jim Allegretti for best offensive lineman, Darren Wesley for best back, Jamie Smith for best receiver, Sam Bennett for best defensive back, Jason Crawford for best defensive lineman, Joe Bishop for most improved, and Bob LaMere for most versatile. Mark Wagner and Kelly Carreno were named Co-MVP's.

"Twenty-nine seniors took part in Senior Night, but a returning group of very talented people will continue Andrean's emergence as a football power in Indiana," remarked Coach Zimmer.

Special recognition went to managers Brian Bujdoso (4 years), Jodi Janke (4 years), Dan Persic (2 years), and trainer/manager Kim Zimmer (4 years).

Niners Kill Crown Point

Although the 1987 season was not one of victories, it was definitely a season of learning.

The Niners realized that skill, teamwork and determination were the keys to success, if not victory.

The turnout for freshman and junior varsity teams was so large that four squads were necessary to accommodate the girls. The varsity hit their high point at mid-season when they pulled together to down the Crown Point Lady Bulldogs, who were ranked in the top ten.

Most Valuable Player and Best Outside Hitter Awards went to senior Bridget Blake and junior Nora Fagen. Most Consistent Player also went to Nora Fagen. Marci Beishline and Shelly Wylie were named Most Improved Players. Up and Coming Players Award went to Barb Larson from the junior varsity team.

Spirited Winners

At Andean, cheerleaders rouse fans and entertain with their acrobatics and antics.

Fifty Niner squads have accomplished much more than meets the spectator's eye, however.

During the summer, varsity and junior varsity squads attended the United States Cheerleading Association summer camp at Valparaiso University, winning first place all-around, as well as a spirit award.

Individual awards went to Kim Zimmer, Missy Rohrer, Jennifer Szaller, and Cheryl Lanfear, Kim and Missy also won ASCA All-American awards. The junior varsity squad made an impressive showing by placing in various categories. Stephanie Hanlon also received an individual award.

Poms Gain Recognition

The Ninerettes are seldom given the attention they deserve. They work long and hard on their routines, all for a few minutes at halftime, to entertain the crowd and raise spirit. The squad started the year on the right beat by capturing third place overall at summer camp. They also qualified for national competition held in Florida. Niners downed six teams to win first place. The team played its best when it defeated Chesterton 165-166 and later placed fifth of twelve teams in sectionals. Two individuals advanced to regionals: Brett Teske and Kevin Newton. Most Valuable Player was Brett Teske. Dennis Pokropinski won Low Average Trophy, and Most Promising Freshman was Paul Keaton.

The girls' tennis team started its season slowly but soon came into its own as consecutive victories over Michigan City Rogers, Griffith, Chesterton, and Merrillville put the team on track. They went on to capture 3 out of 4 of their next matches. They ended the season with a record of 7-4. The team beat its first opponent in sectionals, Hobart, but later fell to Lake Station in a close match. The team achieved impressive wins at the Hobart, Calumet, and Andean Relays. The final record for the season was an outstanding 28-3-2. Eleven members qualified for sectionals. Perfect Game

For the fourth straight year Andrean's baseball team finished the season with at least nineteen wins. They compiled a record of 19-12. A midseason streak of six straight wins lifted their record to 12-5. After a loss the team came back and beat New Trier, a ranked Illinois team, 6-1. Seventh-ranked North Newton fell to the Niners who then proceeded to defeat Lake Station and Lew Wallace. They then swept a doubleheader with Lake Central. Seniors Scott Lemmons, Dan Owens, and Chris Potter led the team with outstanding individual efforts. Scott Lemmons hit the second most doubles in Andrean history. Dan Owens had the second highest batting average ever for the school, and Chris Potter hurled a perfect game against River Forest. Junior Eric Mihal posted one of the best records of any area pitcher with eight wins and only one loss.

Season of Triumphs

The second consecutive varsity softball season for coaches Doug Anderson and Denny Martin came to a close with a record of 13-11.

Andean graduate and Northwestern University catcher, Meg Haller, proved to be the spark plug.

The Niners' season was highlighted by a first place finish in the Valparaiso tournament, where they defeated Michigan City Elston and Valparaiso to capture the title. In addition, a 7-6 victory over Catholic rival Bishop Noll marked a positive turn in the Niners' offense and defense.

Special award winners included center fielder Krista Bane, catcher Jennifer Martin, and pitcher/shortstop Heather Rakoczy as Most Valuable Players. Sophomore catcher Sarah Hoffman was named Rookie of the Year.

"Victories over Crown Point, Lake Central, Merrillville, and Munster and possibly a sectional title are the goals for next year. We have the talent to do so and we remain optimistic as we look to the future," commented Coach Haller at the awards banquet.

Niners faced Bishop Noll in a wrestling match and devastated them with a score of 45-15. The team distinguished itself with respectable finishes at both Hammond and Hobart invitational. The team was led by certain individuals who exhibited outstanding efforts throughout the season. Four wrestlers, Pete McCobb, Joe Exl, Paul Morales, and Darren Billena advanced to regionals. New Coach Turns Season Into a Success

New head basketball coach Tom Shields took over a young team with not much experience and plunged headlong into the season. Five of the first six games were losses, but Coach Shields pulled the team together and turned the season around. Starting with Hammond Gavit the team defeated eleven of its next thirteen opponents.

At one point the team had an eight game win streak. Many of the victories were against impressive teams such as Lake Central, Gary Wirt, Chesterton, and Lew Wallace. In sectionals the team handily defeated Hammond Morton but later lost a close game to Hammond High in the championship game. Senior Todd Fitzgerald was named Most Valuable Player.

Winning Seasons

Both the junior varsity and freshman basketball teams enjoyed successful seasons. The JV team posted one of the best records of recent years by winning twelve games and losing eight. The most impressive wins of the year came against South Bend Adams, Lew Wallace, and Lowell. Coach Pritchett was pleased with his team's performance, especially since they were such a young team. By the end of the year, he was starting three freshmen. Mental Attitude and Performance Awards went to Shawn Lemmons, Mike Lustina, Brandon Brantley, and Dante Brown.

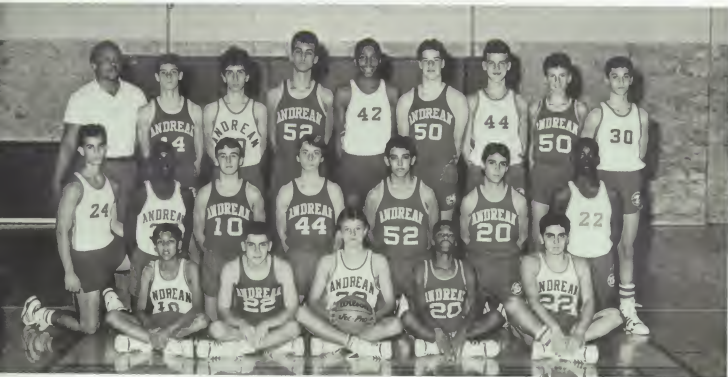

The freshman team had one of the best seasons ever by compiling a record of 17-4. The high point in the season came when they handily defeated Bishop Noll. Mental Attitude and Performance Awards went to John Hovanec, Jermaine Cross, Ted Janik, Tom Hilbrich, and Chris Duncan.

The team finished the season with a record of 3-15. They defeated Hammond High, Gary Wirt, and River Forest. The team was led by Most Valuable Player Kris Katich and Most Dedicated Jenny Attar.

The junior varsity team was more successful, compiling a record of 7-9. Award winners were Brenda Falcone, Most Improved, and Tiffany Smolar, Most Valuable.

Julie Rothenberg
1970-1987

"The train smashed into the rear of the car, splitting it in half. Dead on impact, police said, was the driver of the car, Julie Rothenberg, seventeen ..."

"I couldn't believe, when I came to school the next day, that Julie wouldn't be here. She was always so funny, always talkative ..."

"Everyone loved her — you couldn't help but love her ..."

"Julie really cared for others. She had a gift for cheering people up. I can never recall Julie being in a depressed or angry mood. She always had something to say that somehow made you feel better ..."

"She wasn't afraid to stand firm with her views. Some people give in under pressure, but not Jules. I admired her a great deal for that. I think I know why she was that way. Her family has been so strong through all of this. Instead of people consoling them, they're doing the consoling ..."

"She managed to touch the lives of so many people in seventeen years. Jules's funeral was the largest they'd ever had, the funeral director said ..."

"You know what — she never decorated a Christmas tree. Because she was Jewish, she just never did it. Last year after break we made a deal that she was going to come over and help me do ours; she wanted to put the star on top. I was going to buy her a little tree of her own, then get some crazy earrings and put them on like ornaments. That way she'd have a tree of her own and some new things to get weird with ..."

"It's so hard to let go of a friend. She was genuine; she was what she was. Not quiet. Every day on the way to lunch I'd meet her in the main hall. 'Do I got a story for you?' she'd say ..."

"Our retainer days" were really funny. Every couple of weeks last year we'd pick a day to pin our retainers on our vests. During the off days Jules wore her frog. It was a fishing lure she had taken the hooks off of ..."

"Today has to be the saddest day I've ever seen at Andrean, but one of the warmest. Boys are not afraid to reach out and embrace or lend an arm to cry on. Girls hold each other in comforting hugs, sharing the pain that each other feels. Friends, enemies, strangers are all somehow brought together in sorrow — supporting each other, helping each other. It's too bad that it takes death to make such love and warmth happen ..."

"We need to spread love just as Jules Rothenberg did in her short lifetime of seventeen years. Jules, we love you."

At Andrean, we set the stage for our future; we learn the lines for the roles we will play. Experiences gained here will direct our actions, and our dreams will begin to materialize.

Senior portraits and special occasion photographs taken by Mr. John Giolas of Giolas Studios, Merrillville, Indiana.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.1 million (Office for National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the following principles: older people should be able to live independently in their own homes; older people should be able to participate in the community; older people should be able to access the services they need; and older people should be able to live in a safe and secure environment. The strategy also sets out a number of objectives, including: to improve the quality of life of older people; to reduce the number of older people who are in care homes; to improve the access of older people to health and social care services; and to improve the safety and security of older people's homes.

The strategy is a key document for the development of older people's services in the UK. It provides a framework for the development of policies and services for older people.
